

The project will be evaluated by the instructor based on technical accuracy, system design, AI performance, UI/UX, deployment, and overall presentation. Feedback will be provided to highlight strengths and areas for improvement. The evaluation will ensure the project meets academic and practical standards, and necessary adjustments will be made accordingly.